FY16 Operational Overview

- Achieved accelerated growth in our Australian business, with growth in customers (30 June 2016: >6,800), revenue of $29.7M (FY15: $23.6M) and annualized contract value (ACV) of $34.4M. Growth has been generated from new business and existing customers, across all subscription size categories, in a large and expanding market.
- The US is positioned for further growth, with subscription portfolio under management of US$1.5M at 30 June 2016, with strong momentum under dedicated sales and marketing leadership.
- Enhanced technology leadership to provide higher value products to our customers, and to broaden the use of our products.

Commenting on the FY16 result, Dr Newman said that successful delivery on Nearmap's three key priorities for FY16 positioned the company for continued growth in FY17.

"FY16 was an exciting period for Nearmap. Our Australian operations have generated strong cash flow to support the US during its investment phase. We are pleased to continue building our recurring income streams, with total revenues at a group level of $31.3M, a 20% increase on FY15."

Outlook

In commenting on the outlook for the business, Dr Newman said the Company is focussed on balancing growth with disciplined cost management.

"We will continue our revenue growth in Australia and drive strong growth in the US. Most importantly, we will continue to leverage Nearmap's location content as core to rapidly emerging industries.

"We believe that these opportunities are significant and will be making judicious investment in our operational capabilities to deliver on these."
